

Caroline and Zeus

Jeff,

I know you have received many testimonials in the past but I wanted this one to be special. Before actually hiring you, I called you numerous times with questions about my Pug. Although he was not aggressive, he listened to everyone but me. He would literally walk all over me every time I sat on the couch, 'play' bite me until it hurt. After you patiently coached me on the phone you would tell me that Zeus had no respect for me. But how could that be? I fed and walked him. I let him lay all over me, I played with him in the yard and gave him numerous treats! Then the worse happened. My mom passed away unexpectedly and many of my friends came to my house. Zeus was totally out of control. I was mortified that he kept taking their gloves, hats, etc and would not give them back. He was jumping all over these women and even tore a pair of panty hose that one was wearing. That was it for me!! Before our first session was over, Zeus was a different dog. One of my biggest concerns was I didn't want him to lose his playfulness and self confidence. Not only did he not lose any of those great qualities, they have heightened. You have trained me (yes, me) how to let Zeus know what I want and what I always expect. There are never exceptions. Zeus now sits, heels, stays in 'place' while I'm preparing dinner or just trying to have a conversation with a friend. And yes, he does all of this without any treats. It is done with positive reinforcement and love. Zeus has done so well that I even adopted one of your dogs. I can't believe having two good dogs is easier than having one not so good dog. Training with you has been easy and fun. Thank you so very much for showing me how to be the leader of my pack.
